Change of Owner – Replacement of Vessel (annual or long-term contract holder)

In the event of a change of ownership – ownership of any vessel docked at the Marina, the old and new owner are obliged to immediately inform the Marina Management of the change by stating it with their responsible declaration and presenting all the necessary documents of transfer (names of parties, address of their permanent residence and date of transfer).

The new buyer of the boat becomes, from the day of the transfer, jointly and severally liable for the payment of the boat's debts to the Marina. In case of sale, the boat automatically loses its berth, as in the case of setting up a company regardless of whether the original owner of the boat or the owning company participates in it.

Exceptionally, the above seller of the vessel may retain the right to moor at the Marina and dock another vessel owned by him, of the same dimensions or smaller, if within one (1) month of the sale of said vessel, he submits responsible declaration to the Marina office that he intends to replace it and within two (2) months from its submission, anchor the new boat. The right to moor the new boat will be granted after a relevant inspection and the consent of the service, while the new boat will be hosted for as long as necessary before acquiring a permanent mooring again depending on the Marina's ability.

The owners of docked boats with a residence outside Agios Nikolaos have the obligation to conclude a contract, appoint a representative (respondent) for the necessary communication and all related matters.

The loss of the berth also occurs when:

- A) in the case of a Limited Company (S.A.), all or the majority of the shares are transferred to third parties.
- B) in the case of a Limited Liability Company (LLC), all or the majority of the shares are transferred to third parties
- C) in the case of a Personal Company (O.E. or E.E.) all or the majority of the company shares are transferred to third parties.

Payments

a. - Docking fees are prepaid. Payments are made by cash, credit card, check, or bank deposit. Payment of invoices worth more than €300.00 is prohibited in cash.

b.- Fees are charged upon the owner's declaration for the length of stay and can only be changed with a new declaration

c.- Fees paid are non-refundable

d.-Prices may change during the year.

and. -Boats are not allowed to leave the Marina unless their obligations to the Marina are paid, at least until the day the boat departs.

f. -All docked vessels regardless of category should present an insurance policy in accordance with the general regulation of tourist ports.

Booking cancellation terms

- a. Securing a booking, by making your deposit, means you accept the terms and conditions of the Cancellation Policy
